

Union Medical Healthcare Chairman Eddy Tang voluntarily stops getting paid for three months to join hands with staff to get through difficult times of coronavirus disease outbreak

(14 February 2020, Hong Kong) – Union Medical Healthcare Limited (“Union Medical Healthcare” or the “Company”, which together with its subsidiaries, is referred to as the “Group”; SEHK stock code: 2138), a leading integrated medical group in Hong Kong, announces that Mr. Eddy Tang, who is the Group’s chairman, executive director and chief executive officer, will voluntarily suspend his salary entitlements for three months. The decision becomes effective from today.

Mr. Eddy Tang said, “Our staff is the Group’s valuable asset. I hope that all my colleagues will stand united in the face of the outbreak of novel coronavirus pneumonia. Therefore, I have decided not to receive any salaries for three months to help the Group conserve capital. Although the contribution is limited, I do hope that it can serve as a message to the whole Group that I want to join hands with the entire staff to get through the difficult times of the pandemic disease outbreak.”
