Union Medical Healthcare Welcomes Promulgation of Outline Development Plan For Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area

(19 February 2019, Hong Kong) Union Medical Healthcare Limited (“Union Medical Healthcare” or the “Company”, which together with its subsidiaries, is referred to as the “Group”, SEHK stock code: 2138), a leading integrated medical group in Hong Kong, welcomes the Outline Development Plan for the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area. The Company believes that Hong Kong is well positioned as the Asia's medical hub to raise the standards of medical services and shape its positioning as a health hub in the area.

Mr. Eddy Tang, Chairman, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of Union Medical Healthcare, said, “The development of the Greater Bay Area offers tremendous opportunities to Hong Kong to accelerate a diversified development and the area’s economic growth continuously. The Group welcomes the promulgation of the Outline Development Plan for the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area as it sets out the respective directions of development for the province and two special administrative regions. In particular backed by the high standard in medical and healthcare, Hong Kong is well positioned to promote the development of the industry in the Greater Bay Area.”

As a leading integrated medical group in Hong Kong, Union Medical Healthcare offers comprehensive services which range from medical specialties such as oncology and chiropractic, health management to aesthetic medicine. It now operates 54 clinics and service centres in Greater China. Last year the Group became the first Hong Kong-based enterprise to enter into a strategic partnership with Tencent Doctorwork. The two parties work together to establish primary care clinics in Hong Kong. They also jointly invest and develop an information technology system that enable medical practitioners in Hong Kong to diagnose patients in mainland China. Leveraging the professional and reliable medical services, Hong Kong has been considered as a hot spot for medical tourism. To grasp the opportunity, the Group has strategically expanded its medical tourism business and improved its service capability in that business. The Group now operates its own travel agencies to serve the growing number of medical tourists.

Mr. Eddy Tang added, “As the cross-border infrastructural projects commenced their operation, travelling across the Greater Bay Area happens in an hour. The massive demand from mainland Chinese residents for quality medical services is expected to bring high volume of customer traffic to our business. The Group has invested substantially in the expansion of its professional medical services in recent years. With its professional team of medical practitioners and top-notch devices, and a comprehensive range of medical services, healthcare and aesthetic medicine, the Group expects to attract high-end clients. The Group will seize opportunities arising from the strategic development of the Greater Bay Area by actively expanding its businesses of medical tourism and referrals in medical specialties through its business connections in mainland China. This will enable it to develop the market for medicine and healthcare in the area. Union Medical Healthcare will continue to innovate and provide customer-oriented services as it aspires to become a leading integrated medical group in the region.”
